Avignon University welcomes foreign teacher-researchers, researchers, doctoral students or post-docs wishing to come and teach in our establishment or do a research stay in one of our laboratories.

Are you planning to join us? To facilitate your arrival in Avignon, we have published a bilingual French-English guide that will give you all the keys to prepare your stay.
It offers four main themes:

Before you come
Steps, formalities, family, schools, learning french

Settle in Avignon
Visa, housing, bank, insurance, tax, healthcare

Stay in Avignon
Climate, work pace, tourism, culture, sport, gastronomy

Find your way
Travel, campus maps, calendar, directory, checklist, step by step
Avignon University is the EURAXESS local contact point and a member of the Euraxess France association. The EURAXESS Researchers in Motion network is an initiative of the European Commission launched in 2004 and intended to facilitate the mobility of researchers in Europe. Its purpose is to support mobile researchers, whether they are nationals of the European Union or of a third country.

The EURAXESS local contact point can be reached throughout the process, in «Avignon is a beautiful city with a good quality of life marked by a good climate, diversified shops and close proximity, a well-organized public transport network, accessible housing.»

«Avignon est une belle ville avec une bonne qualité de vie marquée par un bon climat, des commerces diversifiés et à proximité, un réseau de transport en commun bien organisé et des logements accessibles. »

Maria Faye,
PhD student from Senegal
Doctorante sénégalaise